Subject: RE: Food Lion v. DFA - document custodians

Amber,

Yes, we will be prepared to discuss those custodian topics on Thursday.

As we have explained on several of our calls, we are pulling our custodians' records, but we will be running the search terms through the client's internal processes and therefore cannot begin our "review of the custodians" until we have search terms. We have pulled and are reviewing certain non-custodial sources that we believe may contain documents responsive to Plaintiffs' First Set of Requests, but we cannot begin our custodian review without search terms.

We therefore share your desire to begin search term negotiations. However, given that DFA will imminently be responding to Plaintiffs' Second Set of Requests and the fact that Brent and I already held a productive three-hour meet and confer on those requests, it is Plaintiffs' position that the first round of search terms can encompass both our First and Second RFPs. We are working on such proposed terms and can be in a position to exchange them by Thursday.

With regard to an exchange of organizational charts, I do not believe that we have received an RFP or interrogatory requesting this information. I inquired today with the client as to whether it maintains any such charts (or their functional equivalent), but I do not expect to receive them with one day's notice. I can update you on tomorrow's call whether we have learned anything.

Best,

Carter C. Simpson

Subject: RE: Food Lion v. DFA - document custodians

Carter,

We are amenable to speaking at 10 am Thursday. However, we remind Plaintiffs that, in the interim, you have an obligation to begin your review of the custodians that you have already identified, just as DFA has already begun review of its identified custodians. Further to that, we propose to exchange search terms tomorrow for the parties' First Set of RFPs. Please let me know if you are prepared to exchange search terms at that time.

Also in advance of Thursday, we propose to exchange organization charts. While DFA does not have organization charts, it can provide a functional equivalent. Are Plaintiffs amenable to an exchange?

Finally, on Thursday, we would expect to hear from Food Lion as to why its custodian list is shorter than its initial disclosures. And we anticipate that we will be able to provide more information on legacy Dean custodians at that time.

Thank you,

Amber

Thank you, Amber. We need time investigate these individuals, can we schedule a call to discussion at 10 a.m. on Thursday morning?

We do not see any legacy Dean individuals on this list – please let us know DFA plans to make a separate disclosure of the legacy Dean custodians whose files it proposes to search for responsive materials.

Counsel,

Based on DFA's present knowledge and understanding, below please find the individuals who DFA believes are reasonably likely to have non-duplicative documents responsive to those Requests within Plaintiffs' First Set of Requests for Production that are appropriate for custodial review:

- Jon Bebermeyer, Southeast Area Chief Operating Officer
- Alan Bernon, President and Chief Executive Officer, DFA Dairy Brands
- Deana King, Assistant to Rick Smith
- Randy Mooney, DFA Chairman of the Board
- Krista Piper, Assistant to Greg Wickham
- Rick Smith, President and Chief Executive Officer
- Greg Wickham, Chief Financial Officer

We propose to have a call to discuss the parties' custodians tomorrow at 2pm Eastern. Please let me know if you are available to speak at that time.

Thank you,
